LUKE 10:25-37

Today in class I learned what the Bible says about...

The Good Samaritan

Luke 10:25-37

- A lawyer asked Jesus, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”
- He said to him, “What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?”
- “You shall love the LORD your GOD with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.”
- And He said to him, “You have answered rightly; do this and you will live.”
- When Jesus told the lawyer to love his neighbor as himself, the lawyer asked “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus then told the story about the Samaritan to explain to him what He meant by loving his neighbor.
- The story was about a traveler who was beaten up by robbers and left on the road to die.
- Three people walked by: a priest, a Levite, and a Samaritan. Only the Samaritan helped the hurt man.
- Jesus said the Samaritan was the only one who loved his neighbor and He told the lawyer to go and love people just like the Samaritan did.
- The Samaritan had compassion on the hurt man. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, set him on his own animal, took him to an inn, and took care of him. He gave the innkeeper money to care for him and said whatever more he would spend, he would repay him.
